Pediatrics by the Sea

June 16-19, 2010

The Ritz-Carlton Amelia Island, Fla.

Is just 5 weeks away so register soon!

Pediatrics by the Sea is just 5 weeks away so make your registration soon to attend one of the Southeast's finest pediatric CME meetings. This year we'll welcome national faculty members Alex Levin, MD, Philadelphia (ophthalmology); and Juliann M. Paolicchi, MD, Nashville (neurology) along with our own outstanding faculty from Georgia. It will be an excellent program you won't want to miss.

Just added! Young Physicians' Section Reception

A Special Reception sponsored by the Young Physicians' Section will be held on Friday from 5:00 – 6:00 pm in the Amelia Room. Young Physicians, bring your family and network with your colleagues!

Plus...

- ◆ Outstanding Seminars in Coding, Neonatal Nutrition, & Developmental Pediatrics
- ◆ Interactive Hands-On Workshops on Conducting the Pediatric Neurology Exam & Conducting the Pediatric Eye Exam.
- ◆ Section on Families and Professionalism Luncheon on Friday on Current Issues in Newborn Screening.
- ◆ Saturday morning Fun Run and Walk.
- ◆ Music at Saturday reception by the God Bless the Child Quartet.

Accommodations: The Ritz-Carlton is nearing sell-out status for the meeting; but rooms are still available at other nearby hotels, including the Amelia Island Plantation (888-261-6161); and Hampton Inn-Amelia Island (904-321-1111). For additional hotels in the Amelia Island/Fernandina Beach area visit our website or go to www.ameliaisland.org. For registration information, visit www.gaaap.org or call 404-881-5091. We look forward to seeing you at the beach.
