

Who Should Attend

The Winter Symposium is open to all obstetricians/gynecologists, pediatricians and clinical staff who work in those offices, and public health professionals working in maternal, infant and adolescent health.

CME Information

This activity has been planned and implemented in accordance with the Essentials and Standards of the Accreditation Council for Continuing Medical Education by the Georgia Chapter of the American Academy of Pediatrics. The Georgia Chapter of the American Academy of Pediatrics is accredited by the Medical Association of Georgia to provide continuing medical education to physicians. The Georgia Chapter of the American Academy of Pediatrics designates this live activity for a maximum of 5.5 AMA PRA Category 1 Credit(s)™. Physicians should claim only credit commensurate with the extent of their participation in the activity. In accordance with ACCME Standards, all faculty members are required to disclose to the program audience any real or apparent conflict(s) of interest to the content of their presentation(s). This information will be included in the course syllabus/packet.

Learning Objectives

Upon completion of this course, the attendee will be able to:

- Discuss opportunities for physicians and public health to work cooperatively to improve health outcomes in Georgia
- Define work-life balance and describe its relationship with stress, anxiety, depression and burnout
- Develop a plan to maximize work-life balance and improve personal and family quality of life
- Identify perinatal depression in an obstetrical or pediatric setting
- Recognize comprehensive treatment models for perinatal depression

- Describe the etiology and spread of the Zika virus
- Identify symptoms that may be present in patients infected with the Zika virus
- Describe the current and proposed Zika control approaches
- Evaluate the epidemiology of maternal obesity and its impact on infants & children
- Assess the effects of maternal obesity on the metabolism of the infant after delivery
- Review the most current topics in STIs, including the diagnosis and treatment of congenital syphilis
- Define Neonatal Abstinence Syndrome and its prevalence in Georgia
- Describe the process to report NAS via the Georgia State Electronic Notifiable Disease Surveillance System (Send55)

Hotel Accommodations

For those attendees needing a hotel room, the Marriott Atlanta Buckhead Hotel offers excellent accommodations, in the heart of Atlanta's Buckhead district. The hotel is located at 3405 Lenox Road, conveniently across the street from the Lenox Mall and just one block away from Phipps Plaza, where shopping and fine dining opportunities abound. (Note: This is not the JW Marriott Hotel, located a half-block away at 3300 Lenox Road). A special rate of $129 per night, single or double, has been reserved for attendees of the Winter Symposium. Make your reservation by calling 1-888-855-7741 or 404-261-9250 (individual guarantee by credit card). The room block rate ends on January 20, 2017. Be sure to ask for the Winter Symposium room block. Visit the hotel's website at AtlantaMarriottBuckhead.com for further details.
